

Randi Kurz

My name is Randi Kurz. I have been teaching at Scooter School since 1995. My oldest son was a student here in 1986. He is now a college graduate. My other children are Evan and Emily. I live here in Cheshire with my husband Ken and our dog Cooper.

I have a Bachelor of Science degree in Speech and Language Pathology. My Master's degree is also in the communication sciences. While in graduate school, I spent a semester volunteering at a pre-school for autistic and schizophrenic children. My first full-time job was in a pre-school for special needs children. I then moved on to an elementary school setting where I worked as a speech pathologist. I resigned from my teaching position so that I could stay at home and raise my three children. I was fortunate enough to be a stay at home Mom until My youngest child went to first grade. It was at this time that I began working at Scooter School. I teach the four year old classes on Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings and afternoons.

I love to spend my spare time reading, as well as hiking, biking, snow shoeing and snow skiing with my family. I am often found walking on the linear trail in Cheshire with my husband or friends, and sometimes with my dog Cooper.
